To this end, we can say that practically 9 out of 10 adult citizens of BiH feel informed about COVID-19. Young people (18-30) are the least informed (18-30) while, on the other hand, they are the least informed about whom to turn to in case of suspected infection (38%)

79% of the citizens consider themselves very well informed about the facts related to the coronavirus. While 39% of citizens consider themselves to be somewhat informed. AWARENESS

THE MOST IMPORTANT SOURCE OF INFORMATION:

THE BEST-KNOWN SYMPTOMS OF A CORONAVIRUS INFECTION ARE:

- Fever
- Dry cough
- Breathing difficulty

While 38% of the citizens have introduced more frequent hand washing into their daily routine. 92% of citizens who use disinfectants. 90% of citizens adhere to the obligatory wearing of a protective face mask. 96% of citizens who completely avoid group gatherings.

In addition to nonconventional sources of information regarding COVID-19, UNICEF and WHO are two most trustworthy institutions when it comes to the accuracy of information. The prevailing emotions in the context of the epidemiological situation in BiH are worry and fear. Older citizens are more concerned about health while younger citizens are more concerned about the economic consequences of the pandemic.

The greatest resistance to the adopted measures is noted among young men! 50% of BiH citizens claim to be ready for complete lockdown/isolation. 3/4 of BiH citizens believe that testing citizens for the presence of coronavirus should be a priority and support the measures taken by the authorities to safeguard the population.

There is practically no adult in BiH who has not introduced more frequent hand washing into their daily routine. The citizens of the RS show much greater confidence in government institutions than citizens of the FBiH. 2/3 of BiH citizens claim to be ready for complete lockdown/isolation.

The citizens who refrained from making home visits and reduced contacts with other people are: men (90%), women (89%), older citizens (66+) (92%), and family members and relatives (96%).

The citizens of the FBiH are more confident in government institutions than citizens from the RS. 38% of the citizens feel that the authorities should have provided disinfectants and protective masks for all citizens.

The prevailing emotions in the context of the epidemiological situation in BiH are worry and fear. Older citizens are more concerned about health while younger citizens are more concerned about the economic consequences of the pandemic.