

Building Long Lasting Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina: Investment in the Future

STRATEGIC PROGRAMME UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECRETARY GENERAL'S PEACEBUILDING FUND

THEMATIC AREAS: Transitional justice Human rights Youth, peace and security Gender equality	WHAT ARE WE TRYING TO ACHIEVE? Transform how youth perceive the past conflict, combat historical revisionism, enhance understanding of the war, emphasize the importance of factual knowledge, and address genocide denial.
DURATION: December 2024 – Dec. 2026	HOW? By creating a comprehensive study program for final-year secondary school students and teachers, developing a fact-based open source of information for educational and informational purposes, organizing study visits, and involving youth in designing a document to advocate for a youth-oriented transitional justice strategy.
INVESTMENT USD 1,25 million	WHO IS INVOLVED? BiH Signatory: Ministry of Defense of Bosnia and Herzegovina Implemented by: Balkan Investigative Reporting Network – BIRN Implementing Partners: Srebrenica Memorial Center, Forgotten Children of War Association WHERE? 20 high schools across the country, three cities Sarajevo, Tuzla, Srebrenica and online. TARGET BENEFICIARIES: Final-year high school students, history teachers, youth organizations, schools, history teachers, media and general public.

The Secretary-General's Peacebuilding Fund is the United Nations' leading instrument to invest in prevention and peacebuilding, in partnership with the wider UN system, national and subnational authorities, civil society organizations, regional organizations and multilateral banks. The Fund supports joint UN responses to address critical peacebuilding opportunities, connecting development, humanitarian, human rights and peacebuilding pillars.